AND EARNESTLY REQUEST HIS

BLESSING ON OUR ENDEAVORS

FOREWORD

A long stage of our journey is over, but other fields beckon us on. Looking back, years of work and striving appear now as so many pleasant hours. The friendships, the traditions, the loyalty—would, that they might continue forever! Lest Time cast a shadow of a dream over these associations, we sincerely trust that The Halloween will help perpetuate these fond memories, according to the words of the famous Roman:

Haec studia... senectutem oblectant, secundas res ornant, adversis perfugium ac solacium praebent, delectant domi, non impediunt foris, pernoctant nobiscum, peregrinantur, rusticantur.

"Frank"

FRANCIS J. ALLIEGRO

Honor Man 1, 2, 3, 4. Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Winning the hearts of his classmates is not Frank's only accomplishment, for into that chubby frame is rolled a combination of all the talents that make him the genius he is. On the other side, he is a rabid baseball enthusiast, possesses a keen wit, is a fine singer, and plays a good game of box-ball. Good luck, Frank, in your chosen profession, and may you enjoy a long, and prosperous career.

GABRIEL R. AMOROSO

Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Blue and White 4. Year Book 4. Varsity Football, Ass't. Manager 1, 2, 3. Manager 4. Track Manager 4.

"Amby" is almost what we might call a dual personality for he is alternately serious and mirthful. By serious, we mean comparatively serious, for "Amby" is never really depressed in any way. Not even in the classroom, the home of study and attention, is his love of pranks suppressed. A great admirer of sports, though not a participant, he managed the Football and Track teams, and it must be said that he did his job well. "Amby's" spontaneous humor will carry him through, no matter what he chooses.

"Amby"

JOSEPH D. BARRETT

Football 4. Blue and White 4. Glee Club 1, 2 3, 4. Orchestra 1, 2, 3.

Although frugal of words, "Joe", one of the veterans from the old school, has been held in esteem by his fellow-classmen as a musician, student and athlete. In his final year Joe assumed a prominent position in school activities being a member of both the Blue and White, and the Varsity Football Team. The same mild disposition that has won for him many friends at All Hallows will also prove a strong asset in his future career.

"Joe"

"Benny"

JAMES S. BENNETT

Glee Club 1, 2. Blue and White 4. Year Book 4. Ass't. Manager Varsity Football 2, 3. Ass't. Manager Varsity Baseball 3.

A more cheerful happy character than "Benny" is hard to conceive. Always with a ready joke and a happy smile, he conceals an abundance of knowledge and a keen intellect. Although forced by illness from the field of sports and for a time from studies, "Benny", notwithstanding a year's absence, has made good and still rates among the foremost in his class.

THE HALLOWERN -

"Bernie"

WILLIAM R. BERNHARD

"Bernie" distinguished himself by his jolly good manner and his everlasting smile that had its origin in a heart of true blue. His popularity, as you may guess, is of the lasting kind, as it is based on admiration for one who has achieved success through effort. In no other man can we find a more fitting example of action speaking louder than words. Esteemed by all his friends and classmates, success is assured in whatever path of life he chooses to follow.

LEONARD W. BONNER

Dramatics 4. Debating 3, 4. Glee Club 3, 4. Blue and White 4. Year Book 4. Class Treasurer 4.

Although he entered All Hallows in his Junior Year, "Len" soon made friends through his congenial manner and pleasant baritone voice. An enthusiastic member of various activities, he was also one of the foremost debaters in the class. Armed with a great power of delivery his agreeable personality and sense of humor should make him one of New York's outstanding lawyers.

"Len"

THE HALLOVEEN -

JOSEPH T. BRADY

Glee Club 1, 2, 3. Blue and White 4.

With deep regret we realize that four fleeting years have passed, and that we are about to lose "Tiny Tim." During his stay at All Hallows, he did not take an active part in athletics, but could always be found cheering the team on to victory. On the Blue and White staff his diligent work was highly appreciated. He leaves us with the united wish of all his classmates for every success.

"Tiny Tim"

"Cornie"

CORNELIUS J. BROWN

Debating 3, 4. Blue and White 4.

"Archie" will long be remembered as the debater with the "East Side" pronunciation. Besides distinguishing himself in debates, he also won laurels in the classroom by fidelity to all his work. "Cornie," as he is also known, was a valuable reporter on the Blue and White and was highly instrumental in making the paper a success. His many fine qualities will not go unrewarded.

THE HALLOWERN

"John B"

JOHN B. BUCKLEY

Dramatics 3. Debating 4. Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

An indomitable spirit, a charming smile, a dash of humor, and a wee bit o' blarney go to make up that striking figure we know as "John B." For four years he has graced the glee club; this along with his dramatic ability which was shown in "Officer 666" endeared him to the memory of all. Parting with "John B." will mean the end of many pleasant hours, but we know that, as he has won us, so shall he win many other friends.

JOSEPH A. BYRNE, JR.

Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Blue and White 4. Track 2, 3, 4.

Once you meet "Joe" you will no longer wonder at his universal popularity. He has a dominant characteristic, friendliness, into which is merged every commendable quality of the true All Hallows Man. His many victories on the cinder path have won for him the respect and admiration of all. To insure success as a lawyer "Joe" need only apply those principles which have won for him a place in the hearts of all his fellow-graduates.

"Joe"

THE HALL OYEER -

THOMAS J. CALLAHAN

Debating 4.

Among the many graduates bound to reflect credit on All Hallows is our loyal classmate, "Tom." He preferred to place athletics in the background and devote all his spare time and energy to his studies. The fire and the quiet ambition that have carried him so successfully through these four years at All Hallows will surely have a commensurate effect upon his future.

"Tom"

"Kev"

KEVIN L. CLANCY

Honor Man 1. Dramatics 3, 4. Debating 3. Glee Club 1, 2, 3. Blue and White 4.

At work or at play, winning or losing, Kevin has always put his best foot forward. In his two final years at All Hallows he trod the boards in the varsity plays with a naturalness that bespoke an inherent histrionic ability. Again, in debating, and in the Glee Club, he carved for himself an immortal niche. Those of us who know him well, know that his infectious celtic humor will carry him far on the road to success.

THE HALLOVEEN

"Joe"

JOSEPH A. CONNELLY

Although "Joe" is somewhat of a stranger in our midst, he has always proved a reliable friend. His ambition calls him to the field of business, where his many fine qualities will be given a chance of expression. May his success be soon and permanent.

GERARD J. CONROY

Glee Club 4. Year Book 4.

"Gerry" was with us for only two years, but during that time, he made a lasting impression upon all those who knew him, for one cannot forget his cheery nature and ever present grin. We who were privileged to associate with "Gerry," will always recall him with his happy-go-lucky philosophy of life, but determined ambition to succeed.

"Gerry"

THE MALLIWEER -

VICTOR I. CONTESSA

Blue and White 3, 4. Editor-in-Chief 4. Year Book 4. Jay Vee Basketball 3. Tennis 2, 3, 4. Captain 4.

"Vic" is to us, the embodiment of all the qualities that should repose in the polished gentleman. His cheerful disposition and generous personality have made him a popular favorite among his classmates. Loyal to all the activities of his Alma Mater, it is with a feeling of regret that we bid him "adieu." However, we know that wherever All Hallows men gather, there we can expect to find our friend "Vic."

"Vic"

"Matt"

JOSEPH M. CULLIGAN

Dramatics 4. Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Year Book 4. Varsity Football 3, 4. Jay Vee Football 1, 2. Track 1, 2, 4.

In athletics "Matt" has served us well, fighting with the spirit characteristic of All Hallows in Varsity Football and Track. However, his talents are not confined to athletics alone, as his fine sense of humor made his performance in "What Happened to Jones," one that will be long remembered. Popular with all his classmates, "Matt" has their best wishes for every success.

THE HALLOWERN

"Nick"

NICHOLAS J. DOHERTY

Glee Club 3, 4.

"Nick's" quiet but penetrating personality has pierced everyone with whom he has come into contact. "Nick" joined our class in 1934 and has maintained a good reputation throughout his two years in All Hallows. He has introduced many pleasant hours among the students by his sincere conversation, which is accompanied by welcomed wit. With such a fine start he is bound to succeed in any of his undertakings.

JAMES E. DOUGHERTY

Honor Man 1, 2, 3, 4. Dramatics 4. Year Book 4. Debating 3, 4. Blue and White 3, 4. Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Tennis 3, 4.

Besides winning fame as one of All Hallows honor men during his four years, "Jim" also won laurels in the field of sports, being one of the mainstays of the Blue and White Tennis team. A character so strong and forceful yet so unassuming as yours, "Jim," merits the highest success in any undertaking you may choose.

"Jim"

THE MALLINVEER -

WILLIAM J. DUGGAN

Year Book 4.

Little in size but big in heart is our political minded friend "Bill." His philosophy of life is very amusing but through all his joviality there can be seen a certain natural common sense and good reasoning. From the Fourth Grade "Bill" has always been a loyal supporter of every activity at All Hallows, and leaves us with the best wishes of the whole class.

"Bill"

"Hustler"

WILLIAM P. DUGGAN

Glee Club 1, 2, 3. Blue and White 4. Jay Vee Football 1.

Will Duggan, known to his classmates as "Hustler," is highly esteemed by the members of the class. His quiet personality has won him a place in the hearts of everyone with whom he has come into contact. With such sincerity and determination he is sure to attain success in all his undertakings. Good luck — "Hustler!"

"Bill"

WILLIAM A. FINK

Glee Club 3. Basketball 3, 4.

Memories of cheery smiles and carefree hours—how closely we associated "Bill" with them. As versatile as he is happy, he has firmly established himself on the Varsity Basketball squad, and in the Glee Club. His character is a delightful blend of the sportsman and the gentleman.

JOSEPH A. FLANAGAN

Glee Club 2, 3, 4.

When we first met "Red," the first thing we noticed about him was his outstanding good humor. He hasn't changed. "Red" has the happy faculty of making friends in the true sense of the word. Possessing the unusual ability of combining with a happy-go-lucky disposition, a real determination to get things done, "Red" has a deep sincerity about him which gives his character a firm foundation. That coupled with a keen intelligence will undoubtedly open the road to a fruitful life of honor and achievement.

"Red"

THE MALLOWERN -

RAYMOND J. FLYNN

Glee Club 4. Jay Vee Football 4. Basketball 3, 4.

"Slim Ray" Flynn came to us in Sophomore year and straightaway established himself in the heaty swing of All Hallows life. Ever frank, always a hearty sportsman, a sincere friend, he will always be remembered by those of us who knew him, however slightly. Although All Hallows loses a true son, she will hear more from him, for he is a man who accomplishes things.

"Slim Ray"

"Stan"

STANLEY B. FOWLER

Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Year Book 4.

"Stan" has gone about in our midst for nine years, and in his quiet unassuming way he has drawn to himself hosts of friends. Always willing to help anyone he can, always cheerful, he has manifested the superior qualities of a Catholic gentleman. The world holds much for you, "Stan," and may you drink of the cup of life to the full!

THE DALLHWEED -

"Little Joe"

JOSEPH A. FRANK

An unassuming nature with a winning smile best characterizes "Little Joe." Modest in demeanor, quiet in speech, he has always exemplified the perfect gentleman in his dealings with others. May you always be the same "Joe," and may you travel far on the road of success.

EUGENE R. FULTON

Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Cheerleader 3, 4. Jay Vee Football 3. Track 1, 2, 3, 4.

They say that the man with the smile wins. "Gene" seems to be the living example of this. He was a well known figure on the Track and Jay Vee gridiron, displaying a determination that proves he is the type of a man that is bound to succeed in whatever venture he chooses.

"Gene"

THE HALLINGER -

WILLIAM J. GAVAGAN

"Gavy" arrived at All Hallows on a cold February morning. Now, nearly four years later, he is prepared to venture into the inviting world. Although reserved and almost shy, he controls his actions to suit the occasion. A young man of simple tastes, with an ideal philosophy, "Gavy" is sure to find life's trails much to his liking and should travel them far. May his path often cross with those of his classmates!

"Gavy"

``Gene"

EUGENE J. GORMLEY

Debating 3. Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Jay Vee Football 1, 2. Varsity Football 4. Jay Vee Basketball 1, 2, 3. Jay Vee Baseball 1. Track 1, 2, 3, 4.

Quiet, modest, retiring—that is the picture of "Gene," our quarterback, shot putter and basketballer. In the classroom he adapted himself with the same sincerity and earnestness which characterizes him as an athlete. Carefree within limits, yet sincere and true, "Gene" is a friend whom we will remember with satisfaction, and feel that we are better for having known him.

THE HALLOWEES

"John"

JOHN V. GRIFFIN

Football 3. 4. Baseball 4.

John is one of those individuals who is quietly serious and completely engrossed in the more important things of life. To know him is to realize the earnestness with which he devotes himself to athletics and studies, the perseverance which makes him keep at a thing till it is finished. We are certain he will one day attain that goal towards which he strives and we wish him the best of luck in his endeavors.

DONALD F. HARRINGTON

Track 1.

Judging from all appearances one would never guess that "Red" commuted from Astoria during the past four years. Indeed he surmounted the hardships of this ordeal with almost unbelievable skill and good fortune. But "Red" never did let trivialities bother him. Studies never have been a great deal of worry to him for he has always been able to maintain a fairly high average.

"Red"

THE HALLOWEED

ALFRED O. HAYWARD

Glee Club 4. Track 3, 4.

"Al" is a typical unassuming young man who has won many friends by his earnest and sincere manner. Aside from his good work on the Track team, "Al" has confined most of his activities to the classroom with excellent results. Saying good-bye to him is not easy, as his departure means the loss of a valuable friend.

"Al"

"Pat"

PATRICK G. HIGGINS

"Pat" claims the honor of having attended our Alma Mater longer than anyone else in the class of '36. Throughout his long course his success in scholastic work has been outstanding. Added to this an unassuming nature, which has made many friends for him, and you have a picture of "Pat."

THE HALLOWEEN

"Geef"

EDWARD W. HOLLAND

Track 1, 2, 3, 4. Basketball 4. Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

"Geef" never hurrying, never excited, never angry, has become one of the silent athletes of All Hallows. A high-jumper, shot putter and basketball player, he has never been known to become irritated over a judge's decision. He accepts everything as a part of the game. "Geef's" only complaint is that in four years he hasn't been able to find a desk in the school under which he could comfortably fit his lanky legs.

CORNELIUS V. KEANE

Honor Man 1. Blue and White 3, 4. Year Book, Editor-in-Chief 4. Track 1. Manager 2. Dramatics 4. Debating 4.

Keen minded, capable and independent "Con" has made a permanent place for himself among All Hallows men. With his sparkling wit and forceful nature he does his work, asking for nothing and seeking no glory. Yet if true friendship, ready humor, good sportsmanship, diligent application and willing industry avail, —then "Con," the world will be at your feet.

"Con"

EDWARD F. KELLY

Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Jay Vee Football 3. Track 1, 2, 3, 4.

"Ed" is a type of young man hard to analyze. Maybe it is his abundant sense of good humor that makes him so popular or perhaps it is his dependent ability and sincerity. At any rate, to be known as a friend of Ed's makes one feel proud. A star on the track team and one of the mainstays of last season's championship team, Ed is sure to arrive at the height of success with the same ease displayed in his high-jumps.

"Ed"

"John"

JOHN P. KELLY

Dramatics 3, 4. Glee Club 1, 2, 3.

John was as true and as good an Irishman as ever entered All Hallows. In first year a slight brogue was noticed in his speech. This has improved so in four years, that he has been able to play the role of an Irish policeman for two successive years and sound better each time. His genial disposition, generosity and stick-to-it-iveness classed him as one of the "regular" fellows of the class.

"Joe"

JOSEPH P. KELLY

Glee Club 2, 3, 4, Orchestra 2, 3, 4. Jay Vee Baseball 1.

"Joe" came to All Hallows in the February class of '33. He fell right in to the spirit of All Hallows, and soon became part of the amiable surroundings of his fellow students. "Joe" added his unusual talent to the orchestra as a saxophone player of high repute. He will always be remembered by all who knew him, and respected him for his ability.

FRANK J. KENEALLY

Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Frank's is one face that will be missed after the diplomas have been awarded. Endowed with a happy disposition, he has succeeded in chasing away the gloom of dull afternoons. A good student, Frank's ambitions are sure to be realized through his untiring perseverance.

"Frank"

JOSEPH T. KENNELLY

Jay Vee Basketball, Manager 4. Baseball 4.

So retiring is "Joe" that the little we know about him is enough to classify him as a really fine fellow. "Lil," as he is affectionately known to his friends, has associated himself mostly with Basketball and has managed the Jay Vees in his Senior year. His record in class has always been commendable and there is little doubt that he should go far in his chosen career.

"Lil"

"Jim"

JAMES R. KLOBERG

"Jim" came to us in '33 and quickly imbibed the spirit of All Hallows. His scholastic record and his frank, jovial nature have gained for him the respect and admiration of both his fellow-students and teachers. His sincerity and perseverance will carry him far; his pleasantness and zest for life will gain him many friends.

"Frank"

FRANK H. LOVE

Dramatics 4. Football Varsity 4. Debating 3, 4. Jay Vee Football 1, 2. Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Track 4. Year Book 4.

Frank's admiring personality and good disposition toward everyone has won him a place in the hearts of all those with whom he has come into contact. He has rendered valuable assistance to the Football and Track teams, as well as the rest of the activities in which he has participated. Amidst clouds of smoke Frank often bursts forth in all his glory explaining the workings of the latest addition to his varied collection of pipes.

JAMES M. LYNCH

Dramatics 3. Glee Club 2, 3, 4. Football 2, 3, 4. Varsity Basketball 4. Jay Vee Basketball 3.

Some are known by words, others by actions. So it is with "Jim." As a mountainous tackle on the fighting Gaels football squads, he is best remembered to his many friends. Ready for either work or fun, "Jim's" versatile character firmly established him among both the faculty and the students. Whatsoever he undertakes, his sterling traits will e'er stand by him.

"Jim"

THE HALL OWEEN

VINCENT P. McCARTHY

Glee Club 2, 3, 4. Football 3. Track 2, 3.

After you have met "Vinnie" you no longer wonder at his universal popularity. His one dominant characteristic is friendliness. Never irritable, always agreeable and wholly likeable—is the picture we have of "Vinnie" after four years of association with him. It is with a feeling of regret, mingled with pleasure, that we bid him farewell; regret that such a companionship is ending, joy that we have formed such a profitable friendship.

"Vinnie"

"Joe"

JOSEPH A. McDONALD

Jay Vee Football 3. Varsity Basketball 4. Jay Vee Basketball 3. Glee Club 3, 4.

"Joe" is one of the most likeable fellows we have had the pleasure of knowing. In him there is a combination of a gentleman, athlete, and a true friend. With a remarkable sense of humor he keeps you in good spirits constantly, and he is also an interesting companion where there is work to be done. We wish you luck "Joe," and trust that your genial disposition will continue in your chosen profession.

THE HALLBYLEK -

"Tom"

THOMAS P. McMAHON

Glee Club 1, 2. Jay Vee Baseball 3.

Though a bit retiring, "Tom" is very popular with his friends who appreciate his generous character. He will be especially remembered for his enthusiasm for baseball which was exhibited on the Jay Vee team. His future path of life is as yet unknown to us, but whatever his choice may be he will, we are sure, win a place of honor and respect among his associates.

JOSEPH W. McNAMARA

Glee Club 2. Baseball 4.

In every large class, there is always a number of quiet, unassuming characters who never emerge into the limelight. True, that "Bill" has never participated in many extra-curricular activities, and has never let himself become well known outside of his own chosen circle of friends; yet a quiet philosophy of life, a determination of purpose, together with a naturally pleasant personality have made "Bill" outstanding.

"Bill"

THE MALL OVER

JOHN P. MALONEY

Debating 4. Glee Club 2, 3, 4. Tennis 4.

Hailing from New Jersey, John spends much of his time extolling its merits and points of attraction. Possessing many likeable characteristics, his greatest asset is being able to be a good listener. A loyal supporter of his Alma Mater, John will make a fine reputation for himself by his earnest and sincere personality.

"John"

"Major"

THOMAS C. MEEHAN

Glee Club 3, 4. Jay Vee Football 4. Jay Vee Basketball 4.

The "Major's" career at All Hallows has been a rather short, but profitable one. Joining us only two years ago, he has, in that short space of time, become one of the more popular members of the class by his generous friendship and loyal support of all the activities of his Alma Mater. The "Major" proved himself a leader when he led the school contingent in the St. Patrick's Day parade and as he then led us, so shall he lead others in the future.

THE MALLOWEEN ===

"Tom"

THOMAS J. MEEHAN

Dramatics 3. Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Track 3, 4.

A generous nature with a dash of celtic humor, and we have a picture of our shy, handsome "Tom." Nonchalantly striding through life, he is riding on the crest of the wave. His unassuming personality, his pluck and ready wit will long stand by him. Always be the same, "Tom," and the path of life shall always be clear and smooth.

THOMAS J. MELLING

Varsity Basketball Ass't. Manager 3, Manager 4. Jay Vee Baseball Manager 2.

We have only one fault to find with "Tom," and that is, he keeps many of his better thoughts to himself. "Tom" has distinguished himself as manager of various teams to say nothing of his success in studies. The distinctive calmness of his demeanor, his subtle, pleasant humor will be remembered by us for years to come, as a man typical of All Hallows and his Catholic Faith.

"Tom"

THE BALLINEED -

NORMAN J. MELODY

Dramatics 3, 4. Debating 3, 4. Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Year Book 4. Football 2, 3, 4.

"The song is ended but the melody lingers on." Endowed with dark handsome features, a natural versatility, and a cheerful disposition, "Mel" will always be one of the immortals of All Hallows. On the football field, in amateur theatricals, in debating, he has always been on top. His keenness of mind and likeable "savoirfaire" have won for him a host of friends, and we know that same sparkling character will carry him far on the road to success.

"Mel"

"Tony"

ANTHONY C. MESSURI

Debating 3. Glee Club 2, 3, 4. Cheerleader 4. Jay Vee Basketball 3. Track 3, 4.

"Tony" proved a welcome addition to our class by his open, sincere, and extremely good natured manner. He did not allow athletics to interfere with his other activities especially his studies. We shall remember him not only for his contagious good humor but for his fervent spirit and devotion to All Hallows.

THE NALLOWEER -

"Babe"

EDWIN L. MILLIOT

Vice-Pres. of Class 4. Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Jay Vee Football 1. Varsity Football 2, 3, 4. Jay Vee Basketball 1, 2. Varsity Basketball 3, 4. Captain 4. Jay Vee Baseball 1, 2. Varsity Baseball 3, 4.

"Babe" made himself well known by his versatility in all sports and will be sorely missed next year. Besides being a great athlete "Babe" is a regular fellow in all respects. At first he found some trouble with his studies but with the same determination he displayed on the football field and the basketball court he soon conquered this obstacle. With the same spirit, other conquests are bound to be his.

CHARLES L. MOUTENOT

Glee Club 1, 2, 3. Jay Vee Football 1, 2. Varsity Football 3, 4. Captain 4. Track 1, 2, 3, 4. Captain 4. Jay Vee Basketball 1. Jay Vee Baseball 1.

Charles "Skillit" Moutenot is one of the foremost candidates for the title "Most Popular Senior." Despite a quiet and unassuming attitude, Charlie's name is spoken with awe by all his opponents on the gridiron and the track. He brilliantly captained this year's Football and Track teams and had such a successful season on the gridiron that he was picked "All-Scholastic Fullback." Although Charles did not set the world afire by his intellectual ability, he nevertheless endeared himself to all the members of the class by his lively sense of humor and earnestness.

"Skillit"

THE HALLIWEER -

JAMES J. MULCAHY

Football 4. Basketball 4. Baseball 4.

"Moe," as he is affectionately called by his friends, did not join us until fourth year, but in the short space of a year he has proved himself a real All Hallows man. His reputation as a basketball player was established after his first appearance on the court. A hard, clean fighter and good shot, he proved a very valuable asset to the Varsity squad.

"Moe"

"Leo"

LEO G. NEIDERMAN

Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Jay Vee Football 1, 2, 3, Track 1, 2, 3, 4.

We here introduce you to the pleasantly countenanced figure known to his classmates as Leo. With the utmost faith in his own ability he will one day achieve his ambition of becoming a lawyer. In parting we extend him our heartiest felicitations and best wishes for the success which we feel will be his.

THE BALLOYEER

"Johnny"

JOHN P. NUGENT

Glee Club 3, 4, Year Book 4, Football 4, Track 3, 4,

With the confidence of a typical New Yorker, "Johnny" soon acquired the spirit of the school. Always popular it did not take long for him to make friends. He realizes that life is not always bright, and gives a helping hand to those who need it. He likes reading, but is no book-worm. John is a keen judge of literature, which will prove of value in future life. An eager student of several scientific subjects, he is capable of producing effective results in the chemistry laboratory.

WOODROW F. PERRY

Track 2.

Quiet, unassuming, but mighty—that's "Woody." Though one of the school's old boys, he reserves his friendship for a sacred few. A true sportsman and a gentleman, he is sure to be one of those on top when the final reckoning comes.

"Woody"

THE HALLINGER -

HOWARD J. REILLY

Track 2, 3, 4.

A tinge of humor, the pluck of an athlete, the sterling character of manhood—thus we have "Howie." For three years he proved his superiority on the cinder path and rode the chariot of success. The fields of science and medicine call him and we feel that he will accomplish much. His name some day is bound to rank foremost in his profession.

"Howie"

"Maurie"

MAURICE E. ROGALIN

Debating 4. Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Blue and White 4. Year Book 4. Jay Vee Football 1, 2. Tennis Manager 4.

Judging from the indications of the past four years, we are inclined to believe that Maurice will go through life in the same manner, knowing what he wants, and succeeding. Generous in his support of all the activities of his Alma Mater, he has won the respect and admiration of every member of his class by his sincere and loyal nature.

THE BALLWYEER -

"Dan"

DANIEL X. RYAN

Glee Club 3. Blue and White 4. Track 4.

"Dan" is another one of the lads of whom we may safely say will prove successful. Possessing a keen mind and a sharp insight we are able to find nothing that will retard him in the march on the Road to Glory in whatsoever walk of life he may choose to follow. Good luck, "Dan," and may you always remain the same "Dan" Ryan as you are today—a truly good friend.

JOHN P. RYAN

Glee Club 2, 3, 4. Debating 3, 4. Track 2, 3, 4.

A chap who says little, but does much. Such is John. For three years he has been a mainstay of our track team, running the mile and cross-country. In his quiet way, John has carved his name into the hearts of his classmates, and by his unassuming, cheery nature, has drawn to himself many friends. While All Hallows loses you, John, the world gains much.

"John"

THE HALL OWEEN

RAYMOND J. SADLIER

Honor Man 3, 4. Dramatics 3, 4. Debating 3, 4. Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Blue and White 3, 4. Year Book, Assistant Editor-in-Chief 4. Jay Vee Football 1, 2. Track 1, 4.

A glance at the list of "Ray's" activities merely indicates but does not reveal the stalwart qualities that has earned for him the respect and admiration of all his classmates. Gifted with a genial disposition, and a rare sense of humor, "Ray" always stood for the best in scholarship and friendship. All Hallows may well be proud of him.

"Ray"

"Scio"

VINCENT P. SCHIAVONI

Though not engaging in extra-curricular activities, "Scio" has made his ability felt in the classroom. A keen discerning mind coupled with a diligent endeavor to succeed, have raised him high in the esteem of all his classmates. His graduation leaves behind no doubt that he will prove a credit to the school no matter where his vocation beckons him.

THE MALLOWEED -

"Bill"

WILLIAM F. SCHNEIDER

Glee Club 3. Football 4.

Entering All Hallows in his Sophomore year, "Bill" quickly became an ardent supporter of his Alma Mater. In the Glee Club and on the football field he ranked with the foremost. His ready wit was always a welcome asset and that combined with his persevering nature will carry him far.

FRANCIS J. SENZ

Jay Vee Football 4. Glee Club 3. Track 1.

"Frank" has led a comparatively hidden life in our midst. Hailing from distant Astoria he has had little time to participate in school activities except to give strong moral support to the teams. We will always remember "Frank" as an all around good fellow, with a rare sincerity that has gained for him a high place in our estimation.

"Frank"

THE HALLOWEER -

THOMAS J. SPELLMAN

"Tom" is a firm believer in the proverb that haste makes waste. Always gentle, never disturbed—"Tom" always managed to keep cool, calm, and collected under any circumstances. His calm exterior hides a warm nature, unselfish and charitable to an extreme. He will live long in our memories as a fine example of an All Hallows man.

"Tom"

"Moose"

LEO J. SPIEGEL

Jay Vee Football 4.

"Moose," the diversion of his class, has been a member of our ranks since Freshman year. Added to his great love of baseball, is a true and loyal nature that has won many friends for him. That his future will prove highly successful, we have no doubt, as his untiring ambition will not go unrewarded.

THE HALLOWEER -

"Bill"

WILLIAM H. STAPLETON

Honor Man 2, 3, 4. Debating 3, 4. Glee Club 2, 3, 4. Year Book 4. Football 3, 4. Baseball 3, 4. Captain 4. Class President 4.

"Bill," according to our observations is a good student as well as a fine athlete. He has broken many records in his studies as well as on the athletic field. His serious nature and constant application to his studies, are his most admirable qualities. We take this opportunity to extend to "Bill," all the best wishes for a continued success.

ELROY J. TRUE

Orchestra 2, 3.

Despite "Roy's" quiet attitude, he has always proved himself popular in the eyes of his classmates. His ability in studies has been demonstrated by maintaining a good average throughout the year. As a musician he proved himself a valuable asset to the All Hallows orchestra with his violin in Sophomore and Junior years. With such sincerity and determination there is little doubt about his success in the future.

"Roy"

THE MALLOVEEN -

JOHN J. WALSH

Jay Vee Football 2. Baseball 2, 3.

"Jack" is the typical All Hallows man, steadfast, friendly—a regular fellow. A glance at the well built frame of the lad will tell you that he is a lover of the great out-doors. His pet hobby is flying, and some day we may well expect to see his name listed among the immortals of the air. Wherever All Hallows men gather they will remember you, Jack.

"Jack"

"Bill"

WILLIAM C. WHITE

Secretary of Class 4. Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Year Book 4. Football 3, 4. Track 3, 4.

"Great men are known by the deeds they do," and, so it is with "Bill." A scholar, and athlete, a Catholic gentleman, "Bill" has, in his quiet, happy way, become a favorite with all who have been lucky enough to know him. Wherever his steps may lead, he cannot help but spread good cheer about him in a world that can never have too much. Always be the same, "Bill," and you are bound to accomplish all you strive for.

IN BUT a short while the hour of parting will be at hand. Time is steadily marching on, carrying us into the Eternal present; yet, naught can take from us the glorious memories of carefree hours, the indissoluble bonds of friendship, our achievements, or our comrades, some of whom we may never see again, but who will ever remain before us glowing with the ideals and principles taught them in these learned halls of our Alma Mater.

And so, let us wander back along the road of yesterday to that September morn in 1932 when a host of gangling youths timidly ventured into the Freshman classrooms eager to begin their battle with this new phase of their lives. Firmly but "gently" we found ourselves being led through the intricacies of the freshman course, and, from early morn to "tardy night" (one of the evils of the "jug") the rudiments were deeply "impressed" in our minds. Yet, not all of our hours were spent in rooms befogged with chalk dust or bedewed with the "gore of battle." Shortly after the term commenced, Ol' King Football came into power, and freshman "A" & "B" valiantly flocked to his support. "Chet" Fullen, a tall, rangy end, and "Dick" Smith, a hard-running half-back, soon made a name for themselves on the varsity, and thus opened our chapter of athletic history with a bang. In February, we welcomed the incoming Freshmen "C" Class, who soon shared with us the various activities of our Alma Mater. Thus slowly passed the long, dreary months of winter, until, on a raw and gusty day in March, tragedy thrust its ghastly hand amongst us and plucked from our midst one of our dearest friends—"Chet" Fullen. Our happy laughter was now smothered in grief and his passing left amongst us a place which could never be filled.

But, 'tis said, "the play must go on," and so, we move onward once again. This time the scene shifts to the "Cinder path," and there we see Perry, Neiderman, Fulton, Keane, Gormley, Senz and Sadlier sporting the colors of the Blue and White track squad. Running in the midget division these frosh often displayed their "fleet heels" and the ability of the freshman to "go to town." Quite suddenly we discovered that school was almost over, and, that in but a short while the lazy days of summer would be ours. Final averages were calculated and as was expected Alliegro came out on top with Dougherty close behind. Next the regents came—and passed. Our freshman year was but a memory.

Once again September rolled around, and through the portals of school poured a throng of browned youngsters, "fattened" and "lengthened" by a summer's vacation. However, this time we were not the bashful lads we were the year before. Now we were All Hallows Men! We were Sophomores and we thought the world was ours. Cockily we strutted about glancing at the incoming freshmen with looks of superior mien, and at the upper classmen with a tinge of awe. Soon, however, the veneer of the occasion faded, and, regretfully, we thought of lazy days in the summer—fishing and swimming, and not giving a "hoot" whether or not Caesar fought in the Gallic wars or whether the Algebra homework couldn't be done on the "back-stairs" in the few short minutes before class. Playing Varsity football were Lynch, Melody, Milliot and "Vinny" McCarthy. On the Jay Vee gridiron, "Charlie" Moutenot ran "wild" and played a large part in bringing a championship to the team. Among the other Jay Vee football players were found Culligan, Gormley, Love, Sadlier, and Rogalin.

Winter gave way to Spring, and, once again the sound of "crunching spikes" draws us to the cinder path. There, under the watchful eye of their mentor, Brother Green, the Track team was working out, and Gormley, Fulton, Neiderman, "Vinny" McCarthy and "Geef" Holland were beginning to earn recognition for their prowess. And so, mixing work with play, Commencement arrived—and vacation.

Time again marched on, and this time it found us stalwart Juniors, "heady" with the success of having conquered the first two hurdles of the high school course. Little did we then realize what a brilliant year the ensuing one was to be. The Varsity football team, having been undefeated, won the C. H. S. A. A. football Championship. "Big Bill" White, a hard-playing guard and a deadly drop-kicker, "Charlie" Moutenot, a fleet-footed half-back, "Bill" Stapleton, another crashing, blocking back, "Babe" Milliot, center, Lynch, Griffin and Melody, all hard scrapping players, took part in gaining this immortal glory for their school.

The sound of the booted pigskin soon gave way to that of a dribbled basketball, and "Bill" Fink, "Ray" Flynn and "Babe" Milliot successfully captured Varsity berths. In the annual Varsity show, "Officer 666," Melody, as a gruff, old police Captain, Ewald, one of the charming young heroines, with Clancy as her elderly Aunt, Sadlier as a blackguard chauffeur, John Kelly, as a hard-boiled detective, and T. J. Meehan and J. Buckley as two of New York's "finest" achieved noteworthy praise for their splendid, supporting performances. The chilly blasts of winter had now given way to the balmy breezes of Spring. "Geef" Holland and "Bill" White became prominent as shot-putters. Reilly developed into a splendid "miler" as did his team-mate John Ryan; Gormley, Neiderman and Fulton became prominent in the sprints, while Charlie Moutenot became an all-round star. Also on the track team were Hayward, T. J. Meehan, "Joe" Byrne and "Ed" Kelly one of our better high-jumpers. Under the tutelage of Coach "Jack" Lavelle the Track squad won the C. H. S. A. A. Championship of Manhattan, sent a Relay Team, of which Howard Reilly was a member, to the Penn Relays where they gained second place, and won other honors in the Westchester Relays and at Madison Square Garden. On the baseball diamond "Bill" Stapleton was holding down the "initial sack," and at bat was terrorizing all the opposing pitchers. At Commencement, Alliegro was awarded the Physics Medal, Sadlier the Junior Prize Debate Medal and Stapleton the Religion Medal. Awards for General Excellence were given to Alliegro, Dougherty, Sadlier, Stapleton and "Dan" Ryan. Juniors we were! And so another year belonged to the immortal past.

At last the end of our quest was in sight. Three years of study, of the imbibing of Catholic principles, and of learning how to take success as well as defeat had fully prepared us for this final lap. Oh! how eagerly we prepared to make it an immemorable year for ourselves and for the school;—and, how well we succeeded! The Varsity football squad tied with Fordham Prep and Xavier for the City Championship. "Charlie" Moutenot was placed on the All Scholastic Private School Football team, because of his sensational playing during the year; "Big Bill" White, one of the city's deadliest drop-kickers and a hard playing tackle, was given a place on the second team. Others who distinguished themselves with honor during the season were Milliot, Gormley, Stapleton, Culligan, Lynch, Barrett, Love, Melody, Schneider, Griffin and Nugent. Football soon gave way to basketball, which was captained by Milliot. It was a fair season, which was highlighted in the Iona game when Bill "Diz" Fink suddenly made a solo dash for the wrong basket and sank one for Iona, assisted by Jim Lynch. Mulcahy and Milliot were awarded places on the All City Private School Basketball Team.

Then came one of the outstanding events of the year—the annual play. The comedy farce, "What Happened To Jones" was presented at the Longacre Theatre and was accorded the finest reception ever given an All Hallows play. Culligan, as a travelling salesman was an uproarious success; Melody, as an aged professor, rendered a veteran characterization; Sadlier as the Bishop, portrayed his character with a straight but extremely comical twist; Dougherty gave a perfect characterization of a high-strung old lady; Bonner was excellent as a "love-sick" youth while Clancy, as an escaped lunatic, John Kelly as a policeman, and Frank Love as the keeper of the sanatorium, played their parts excellently.

There are but few highlights left us now. The tramping feet of the Blue & White soldiers are heard no more, but ever will we remember our brief "blaze of glory" as we swung up Fifth Avenue led by "Major" Meehan in the St. Patrick's Day Parade. "Bill" Stapleton is Captain of the Baseball squad, "Charlie" Moutenot leads the Track Team, and Vic Contessa the Tennis Team as well as being Editor-in-chief of the Blue and White. Time alone can tell of their record, but we feel assured it will be a memorable one. Before closing, we must not forget a word about "Dick" Smith who was forced out of class by a serious illness. May his recovery be swift and complete.

And so, the time to bid good-bye has come. Our memories are happy ones; our friendships strong and true. The future stretches out before us bright and clear. Naught else need be said.

WE ARE graduating—and the thought brings us pleasure and inspiration, pleasure at being united once again in the High School, and inspiration to carry on the noble traditions we have seen so honorably upheld.

This last year has been enjoyable. Plenty of work, too, preparing for the Regents and all that. And say, we had pretty good success at that—even if we do say it ourselves. Then, too, we have a boast that no other class in the school can claim. We are and have been the most interested and energetic class when it comes to working for the missions. This year we sent to the missions more than one hundred pounds of stamps and tinfoil, large supplies of medical samples, and many old copies of Catholic magazines. Again, we claim honor for having about the best set of dancers in the grammar grades. Every entertainment sees us lighting up the faces of the people with our lightning-like stepping.

We are not giving to boasting, but in the interest of truth we must put ourselves forward. Look for instance at the library. No other class, at least so we think, reads as much as we. Good sign that. And as for sports we can't say much as yet, but when we join the ranks of the High School you'll hear from us. And so for a time we say "Au Revoir"—but not good-bye!

ORGANIXATIONS

Religious Devotions

EVEN before the phrase "Catholic Action" entered our terminology, the spirit connoted by it flourished at All Hallows, and the interests of the Church and souls have already held the highest place in the minds of the students. This has been a large factor, no doubt, in determining the numerous vocations to the priest-hood and the religious life with which All Hallows' students have been blessed.

For, one can not help but be impressed, especially by the gathering of all the students for Mass and Holy Communion on the First Friday of each month. And the general fervor demonstrated in the singing of the hymns and the recitation of the prayers has a potent, uplifting effect on the individual. This general Communion is also our group Communion as members of the Apostleship of Prayer, of which organization we are all members. The other obligations of the Apostleship are fulfilled by the separate classes in their recitation of the prescribed prayers.

MISSIONS

The work for the Catholic Students' Mission League has been better this year than for some years past, and this is, let us hope, a pressage of still more earnest endeavor on the part of the student body to help those self-sacrificing members of the Church who are laboring for the spread of Christ's kingdom on earth. Besides their monetary contributions to the missions, the various classes have been active in collecting stamps, tinfoil and medical samples, all of which are of use to the missionary bands.

THE RETREAT

The annual retreat was held this year during the week preceding the Christmas vacation and was conducted by the Rev. Father Hines of the Redemptorist Fathers. If we may judge such an event by man's attestations, the retreat was most successful; for, both the retreat master and those who made the retreat were elated over the manner in which it had proceeded.

In place of the regular school-day periods, each of the three days was spent in strict silence and in participation in various devotional exercises. The day was started with Holy Mass in the school auditorium where Father Hines also delivered his several lectures of the day to the retreatants. The time which remained was given over to spiritual reading, the recitation of the Rosary, the making of the Way of the Cross and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament—the blessing which crowned the work of each day.

All the students of the High School Department made the retreat and evinced great fervor and earnestness. We were all impressed by the sound and beautiful ideas and the striking illustrations brought forth by the Retreat Master and feel that they have been efficacious in aiding us to lead more fervent Catholic lives.

Dramatics

A PLAY is best judged by the manner in which it is received, and its success comes by pleasing those who witness it. Thus by the uproarious applause tended the comedy-farce, "What Happened To Jones," the varsity play achieved success. The portrayals of the characters were so vivid, the scenes so adroitly executed, it was unanimously agreed that the show was one of the finest ever presented by All Hallows.

For the first time in the history of the school, the scene of the play was the stage of a Broadway theatre—that of Longacre's. On the boards where once legendary names achieved immortal success this year's dramatic group brilliantly and indelibly imprinted its name in the annals of All Hallows glowing memories. Possibly the spirit of those immortals of the theatre entered into them; possibly the atmosphere of the theatre itself permeated them; or perchance, the tradition of their Alma Mater inspired them to their dazzling triumph. But, no matter what the inspiration, their success will always be an unforgettable memory. However, while we pay tribute to the actors, we must not forget those who labored behind the scenes, those who attended long arduous rehearsals, who made possible the success of the play—Rev. Brother Murtagh and Mr. Charles A. Cummins. To them the school extends sincere thanks; to the players themselves no greater reward could be given than the plaudits accorded them for "What Happened to Jones".

IF IT is true that "reading maketh a full man," then indeed are the students of All Hallows fortunate in having at their disposal a collection of the recognized works in all the various fields of Literature.

Covering a wide field—Religion, History, Science, Debating, Biography, Travel, the zealous work of the efficient staff is reaping an abundant return by the results obtained in the classrooms. The periodicals and magazines are so up-to-date that the upper high school classes have an invaluable storehouse of current events at their finger tips.

Debating

THE art of self expression plays an important part in the life of every All Hallows man. To be able to express one's opinions logically and fluently is so important in later life that much stress is laid upon Elocution and Debating, throughout the high school. Debating which begins in the Grades, receives special emphasis in Junior and Senior years, and reaches its apex at both the Junior and Senior Debates, the latter of which is held at Town Hall on the night of Graduation.

Last year, at the Junior Prize Debate, a spirited discussion was held on the question "Resolved, that capital punishment should be abolished in New York State." The affirmative, upheld by R. Sadlier, C. Brown and W. Stapleton lost by a slight margin to K. Clancy, J. Dougherty and L. Bonner. However, the debating Medal was awarded to R. Sadlier. During the Senior year some of the topics debated were "Resolved that the Italian invasion of Ethiopia is justifiable," "Resolved that New York City should own and operate all its public utilities," and "Resolved that Franklin D. Roosevelt should be reelected."

And, now, that our career of debating at All Hallows is almost over, it is with a warm feeling of satisfaction that we recall the many profitable hours spent on the rostra; for the training in oratory, the poise and self expression gained there, we render our eternal thanks.

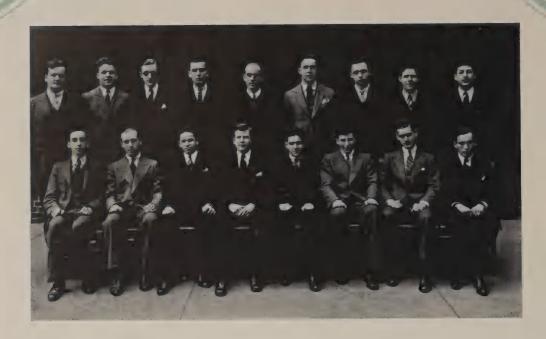

Orchestra and Glee Club

THE Catholic affection for the arts, not "for art's sake," but for the sake and love of the Supreme Artist, is the inspiration which has encouraged the cultivation of music at All Hallows. So it is that the Orchestra and Glee Club have become important amongst the various activities of the school.

For the past few years, under the able direction of Professor Joseph Sobel, the orchestra has maintained an exceptionally high standard throughout inter-city competition.

The Glee Club, under the direction of Dr. Jules Swalier, has attained a high degree of proficiency. Performing in various choral concerts and at all the major school functions it has merited much deserved praise.

Proudly then do we refer to both our Orchestra and Glee Club and hold them up for public admiration. To Dr. Jules Swalier and Professor Joseph Sobel we extend our heart-felt appreciation for work well done.

COACH "JACK" LAVELLE

Football

THE 1935 Football season opened with rather poor prospects for another successful season. Graduation had taken from the squad such brilliant stars as Captain George Naughton, Ancker, Cavanaugh, Dooley, McGee and McArdle, who in their final game rounded out an undefeated season by decisively trouncing Mt. St. Michael's and bringing, once again, to All Hallows the C. H. S. A. A. Championship. Not the least bit discouraged, Coach Jack Lavelle started to build. Under his magic touch, a somewhat ragged and inexperienced squad gradually began to resemble a team, a team that more than made up for its deficiencies by its fiery spirit and enthusiasm, a team that soon won the hearts of every loyal student, and finally a team, though losing to St. Agnes and Fordham, won all their other games and finished the season in a triple tie for the coveted Championship with Fordham and Xavier

To give a detailed account of each game would be a mere narrative of what is now ancient history; but a short look into the highlights of the games would serve as a reminder of the great work of the All Hallows team of 1935. The opener was played at Sparkill, N. Y. against St. Agnes; the All Hallows eleven, on this occasion, was merely a shadow of the previous great Blue and White squads. With little offensive work the team was held on the short end of a 13-0 score. But this game was the tonic that inspired the team to work even harder so that the same costly errors would not be repeated.

On Columbus Day the team journeyed to Brooklyn, where All Hallows was conceded little chance to win over St. Francis. At the very start of the game everyone realized that an entirely different A. H. squad was on the field; they played a vastly improved game and showed the spirit that permeates every Blue and White athlete. For three quarters the two teams played on even terms, neither scoring, neither outplaying the other. But at the opening of the fourth period, St. Francis started a desperate drive, they threw pass after pass, but with the help of a few interceptions A. H. found themselves in possession of the ball on St. Francis' 12 yard line. Bill White was drawn from the line, and stepping back to the 30 yard marker he booted a field goal! The ice was broken—St. Francis was beaten! But, as if to make doubly sure, with seconds to go, Bill Stapleton intercepted a pass and carried the ball over the goal line to make the score 9-0. But, soon after this victory, a close 9-7 game was lost to Fordham. Seven times All Hallows was well within striking distance of the Fordham goal line and seven times did they fumble. The A. H. team was working like a well oiled machine—but, every time it got near the goal line the ball was fumbled and recovered by Fordham. It was not until the third period with the score 7-0 against A. H. that Stapleton dashed across the line for a score and Moutenot converted, tying the score 7-7. However, late in the final quarter, Fordham reached the Blue and White 20 yard line, where Stirnweiss drop-kicked a field goal.

The next team to bow before All Hallows was Xavier; at this game Bill White's field goal provided the margin of victory, 16-14. Late in the first quarter Bill drop-kicked from the forty yard marker and started the scoring of the game. No more scoring was made, however, until the second half, when A. H. took the ball on a march from the 40 to the 1 yard line and Stapleton scored with Moutenot converting. Soon after this Gormley intercepted a pass and ran 50 yards to score standing up. This ended the Blue and White scoring, but Xavier provided many thrills by making their entire fourteen points in a last quarter drive.

By this time the team had gained recognition as one of the great teams of All Hallows. Armistice Day arrived but no terms of peace had been agreed upon with our arch-rival, Iona.

This contest between the two schools of the Irish Christian Brothers has always been one of the best of the year, and this season's game proved no exception. The 19-0 A. H. victory marked the third consecutive victory over the team from New Rochelle. Early in the game Moutenot scored after a march from the forty yard line; not long after this he took the kick-off and ran it from his own forty-five yard marker to the goal line for the second score. Resting, as it were, until the third quarter, Moutenot suddenly threw a pass to Walsh who scored and White drop-kicked the extra point finishing the scoring for the Blue and White.

Following the Iona game the All Hallows eleven met Mount St. Michaels who also bowed in defeat, 24-7. In this game, as in all others, Moutenot featured in all the scoring, making three touchdowns and throwing the pass that made the fourth. The game was only a few minutes old when Charlie ran along the sidelines for sixty yards and a touchdown. A short time later he again crashed through for a touchdown. His third score came when he took a pass from Gormley on the twenty yard line and went over for a score. At the closing of the game Charlie threw a pass to McDonnell who also scored. Four victories, two defeats and a share in the championship, an enviable record for any team especially for a team which had been as underrated as All Hallows.

THE JAY VEE TEAM

Soon after the season was over the All-Scholastic Private School teams were announced and the honors bestowed. Charlie Moutenot was chosen full-back of the first team and his testimonial was presented by Lester Bromberg of the N. Y. World-Telegram, before the entire student body. An ideal backfield man, a blocker, a passer, a punter and a ball carrier, mildly describe Captain Charles Moutenot. There were few scores made in which Charlie did not have either a direct or an indirect part.

Ed Milliot, the sturdy, dependable center, on whom every play depended is a fine example of the A. H. athlete. He had the grit and the determination that made him an outstanding center. Bill Stapleton, whose uncanny ability to crash through the toughest line despite his size, was one of the most popular members of the squad. His presence was always felt and accepted on the field. Bill White, another wearer of Scholastic honors, was the large, left tackle, one of the mainstays of the line. Bill's drop-kicking saved the team in many tough spots and it was due to this as well as to his general all around playing that he was picked as a member of the All-Scholastic Private School second team. Probably the lightest quarterback ever to play for All Hallows football team was Gene Gormley, whose work at calling the plays was not only done well but was done with the thoroughness which characterizes Gene. His voice was always heard calling the signals clearly, confidently and commandingly.

Coach Jack Lavelle truly deserves more than a word of praise and congratulation for his work at All Hallows, and in particular for the work he did in making this team measure up to the usual high standard. The Class of 1936 is proud to have been able to be associated directly or indirectly with that team.

MR. BRADY, COACH

Basketball

WITH the ending of the Football season, all thoughts were turned towards the prospects of the Blue and White Basketball squad. For a number of years, A. H. had been in a slump, and the outlook seemed no brighter for the coming season. With Captain "Ed" Milliot, "Bill" Fink, and "Ray" Flynn, the only regulars left from the '34-'35 squad, Coach Ambrose Brady cast dubious glances at the impending schedule.

Hopefully, Mr. Brady issued the call for candidates; a large response, tryouts and cutting followed quickly. Teams were formed, broken up and rearranged in an effort to find a quintet that would click as a unit. After one was found, fresh difficulties arose in the form of eligibility according to the C. H. S. A. A. rules, but nothing daunted, Mr. Brady carried on.

"Ed" Milliot, whose steady work during the previous season had won for him the Captaincy of this year's outfit, became an outstanding player by his skill and consistency, and proved a real leader on the floor. "Jim" Mulcahy, who came to All Hallows in September, turned out to be a natural basketballer, steady, sure of his shots, relying on team work, and capable of handling himself in the tight spots. "Bill" Fink graced the basketball court for two years in a Blue and White uniform, during which time he established an enviable record for himself. "Pat" McDonnell, a fast and rugged player, who had only a few chances to show his value, was accepted by all on those few performances. "Ray" Flynn, playing his second year, retained his position by his determined and earnest playing. A thin chap, "Ray" was almost the baby of the team, but his appearance fooled many of his rivals, who soon found out that he knew his way around on the court.

From last year's Jay Vee team, "Bob" Noonan, "Vinnie" Holland, and "Tom" Cunningham advanced to occupy regular berths in the Varsity lineup. "Bob" made himself felt on the court with his "do or die" spirit. "Vinnie" Holland, despite an injury during the latter part of the season, proved the high scorer of the team. Others including "Tom" Cunningham and "Ed" Bernholz gave great promise for next season's squad.

Although the majority of the games were mediocre as far as thrills and excitement were concerned, yet there were several occasions which provided many breathless moments, viz. the P. M. A. game, the games with Iona, La Salle, and Manhattan. But the greatest thrills came in a postseason game in the K. of C. Tournament, when St. Francis, one of the favorites, was matched against the Blue and White, which was conceded little chance of winning. The game ended with the score 22-22, after the lead had changed sides several times. The overtime period found the teams still deadlocked, now at 24-24, and they automatically started the second overtime period. Up to this time, Fink, Milliot, Cunningham, Noonan and Mulcahy had played "Iron-Man" basketball. Suddenly Cunningham, trying to stop a basket that would have meant the game, fouled his opponent and had to leave the court. With seconds to go Flynn entered, but St. Francis clinched the game with the ball going through the net as the whistle blew, making the final score, St. Francis 28, All Hallows 24.

CAPTAIN MILLIOT

Too much praise cannot be lavished upon Mr. Brady, our coach. Handicapped by the lack of material, his unstinted devotion brought unexpected success, and the whole student body joins us in wishing him a very prosperous season next year.

CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL CHAMPIONS FOR 1935

Track

N 1933 Track was reorganized at All Hallows by the Rev. Brother Greene. Although the response was large, the students, as a body, were skeptical about the possibilities of a good season. After the team had captured numerous prizes and cups, however, Track became one of the outstanding sports at All Hallows. In '34, when the second call for candidates was issued, the response was not only large but also enthusiastic. Out of this group of mostly inexperienced youngsters, Brother Greene produced a team that was able to go through its Dual Meets undefeated and place high in the C. H. S. A. A. meet. The team of that year gave us such stars of the "cinder path" as Bob Hoolahan, then Captain, Ralph Morese, John Neylon, Gene Gormley, Ed Kelly and a host of others.

In 1935, the year of the greatest All Hallows' triumphs in the field of sports. Brother Greene was forced to retire from active teaching and coaching due to his poor health. His loss to the Track team was immediately felt; soon talk of abandoning Track, which had in two years risen to glorious heights, and which promised to have its greatest season, was heard around the school. But, this talk was soon checked when it was announced that the All Hallows Track Team would be coached by that beloved son of the Blue and White, Jack Lavelle. The squad, with renewed vigor, as if to dedicate the season to the work which had been started by Brother Greene, who was by this time confined to his bed, achieved the goal for which he had strived—The Manhattan Catholic High School Championship.

This championship team. Captained by John Neylon, now at the Novitiate of the Irish Christian Brothers, produced many new stars other than those mentioned above, viz., Charlie Moutenot, Captain for the 1936 season, Bill White, John Ryan, Tom Cunningham and Ed Holland. The fact that the track team comprises three divisions. Senior, Junior, and Midget, gives all a chance to participate in this sport regardless of size. The Midget division has given us fast runners in Harry McCabe, Charlie Fulton, and John Cerruti. Leo Niederman, Ed Kelly and Gene Gormley have for three years upheld the Junior Section. Leo, a 220, a relay man, and a broad-jumper, was always a valuable asset to the Track team; Gene Gormley's running of the "300" and his throwing of the eight pound shot made him a standout of the division. Ed Kelly, although a Junior, was one of the leading high impers in both the Junior and Senior divisions. Unquestionably, the outstanding figure of the Senior section last year was Charlie Moutenot, a dash man, a relay man and a broad-iumper "par-excellence," who truly deserved to be awarded the captaincy for 1936.

Amongst the Seniors, we also had Bill White, who did not realize his ability as a shot putter until his third year and Ed Holland, the slim shot putter and high imper, who for four years proved an important addition to the squad. Jack Lavelle was not only left shot putters, high jumpers and dash men, for in Howard Reilly and John Ryan he had two "milers" of distinction.

With the records of the previous teams before them, the All Hallows Track Team of 1936 has a high mark to shoot at. So far, they have displayed the same vigor, determination and willingness that has characterized the Track team in the past. Although no comparison can be made until the final meet is over we confidently feel that this year's team will be one of the best that ever donned the Blue and White.

In parting—another word of tribute to the Reverend Brother Greene, the real "Father of Track" in the new All Hallows: may his health soon enable him to join again, not us, but those whom we leave to carry on. Also, a word of gratitude to Jack Lavelle, who continued the ideals of Brother Greene, and produced a Championship team in 1935 and we hope in 1936.

Baseball

WITH Captain "Bill" Stapleton the only regular left from last season's team, Br. Satterthwaite has been working very hard to get the team into shape for the opening game. Long intensive drills have been the order of the day, and prospects for a successful season appear very bright.

Swimming

WITH two legs on the Private School Championship Trophy, All Hallows has finally started the quest that will give us permanent possession of this Trophy. Despite the failure of immediate success, enthusiasm still runs strong. Early this year a small contingent of All Hallows swimmers placed third in the Private School Meet, which is a good indication that swimming is regaining its old prestige. Continued effort in this direction is bound to win the Trophy permanently for All Hallows.
